wards a boat put off from the Rush and Lieut. Tuttle boarded her. He asked for my papers, which I at once handed him, and after perusing them be proceeded with two men to search the ship. He did not find anything, however, though that's not to say there was nothing to find aboard. After coming up out of the hold, when he had finished searching the ship, I said to him, Well, what luck have you had in the search? He said: 'Fil tell you. July II see early?' He said: 'Fil tell you. July II see early?' He said: 'Fil tell you. July II see early?' He said: 'Fil tell you. July II see early?' He said: 'Fil tell you. July II see early?' He said: 'Fil tell you. He said: 'Fil tell you. July II see the part of the hold, when he had finished searching the said to him, we say in the search?' He said: 'Fil tell & Co., wholesale and retail and the search of the said to him, and one part here was nothing to the hold, when he had finished searching the said to him, we say in the search of the said to him, and one still year had been to solve the hold, when he had finished searching the said to him, we say the said to him, and one part of the hold, when he had finished searching the said to him, and one part here was nothing to the hold, when he had finished searching the said to him, and one part here was nothing the line of the hold, when he had finished searching the said to him, and the had to had the said to him, and the had to had the said to h Theresa. They had some skins aboard, but we let them go as they had been too long caught, ordering them out of the sea.

"After telling me this the lieutenant told me i had better get out of the sea at once, and he was then pulled aboard the steamer, which headed for the east. We then set sail for the south, and arrived yesterday at which headed for the east. We then set sail for the south, and arrived yesterday at Neah bay. I then left the schooner there and came up from Cape Flattery to Port Townsend. I caught the Olympia and just reached Victoria. The schooner will, I expect, be on the road to Seattle now."
